Holiday Club lets people vacation like a celebrity

Distinctive Holiday Homes (DHH) is a luxury private destinations club offering exclusive and unique holiday destinations worldwide, including Tuscany, Paris, Colorado, Fiji, Australia and New Zealand.

As well as first class accommodation, DHH members will receive first class service on every trip. DHH offers the location, facilities and services of a five star hotel but with the absolute privacy of a private residence.

All properties in DHH's global portfolio have their own concierge who is from the local area which will ensure guests have the holiday of a lifetime and are able to experience the local culture, including gourmet food, artisan wines and premier tours, to the full. In addition all properties come with:

- At least one luxury vehicle fitted with a specifically pre-set navigation system per property (in most instances these are BMWs or Audis);
- a fully stocked fridge and drinks cabinet with your requested food and beverages (up to US$1000 per week);
- maid & laundry service;
- local mobile phone which has been pre-set with a range of useful local numbers;
- gym facilities

"A stay at a Distinctive Holiday Home property is to experience the lifestyle of the uber rich and famous without the price tag that would normally go with it," Distinctive Holiday Homes CEO, Nick Wood said.

The majority of DHH's multi-million dollar properties have between four and seven bedrooms meaning members can invite a number of other guests on their holiday at no additional cost.

DHH has also recently announced a partnership with UK-based concierge service, Quintessentially, now providing DHH members access to unparalleled 24 hour luxury service throughout 28 countries.

Whether traveling at home or around the world, DHH members can be on the VIP list for the world's most exciting events on every continent - 24 hours and 365 days a year. Be it front row seats at fashion shows or impossible-to-book theatre tickets and dinner reservations, members receive automatic access and exclusive privileges at the finest gyms, spas, restaurants and nightclubs around the globe.

Another DHH innovation is to announce the introduction of an exclusive private jet service operated in partnership with Bombardier* Skyjet* International - the world's largest provider of business jet charter services, with a fleet of over 920 aircraft and access to over 5,500 airports worldwide.

DHH Members can book flights on the Skyjet service at special "Member's only" rates, paying for just one-way flight time. Bookings are organised by DHH with as little as 8 hours advance notice.

DHH currently has two yachts, and stunning properties in the United States, France, Italy, Australia, Fiji and New Zealand. Destinations to be added within the next year include a ski chalet in Megeve; a chateaux in France; a country house in the Cotswolds, UK; a Manhattan residence; a waterfront home in South Beach, Miami; an ocean side apartment in Los Angeles ;a seaside home in Diamond Head, Hawaii; a Caribbean beach house in St Maarten; an apartment on Sydney harbour; an ocean front apartment in Auckland, New Zealand and a 63' Sailing Yacht to be based in New Zealand and Fiji.

DHH have made an offer to all W1 readers; join before the end of January 2008 and DHH will pay your first years Annual Dues for the plan you select, saving you up to $35,000 USD (this offer is currently limited to 30 new Members only, and applies to all Private Membership plans).
